LETTER FROM OUR CEO

September 1, 2026

Fall is here PACC Family & Friends!

Kelly O'Malley, CEO

It's hard to imagine the leaves will soon be dropping from the trees. I hope you enjoyed PACC's outdoor events and activities throughout the summer. We had some periods of high heat and rain, but overall, it was a fantastic season.

I love the new Yellow Book format!! Do you? Let us know what you think. As always, the Yellow Book is chock full of educational activities, fun events and social opportunities. Please consider registering for our events online at www.pacc.org. Select "Events" from the menu and scroll through the calendar from there. Click on the event you'd like to attend and enter your information.

You may have received a letter from PACC asking for a donation. We are increasing our fundraising efforts to meet unmet needs and provide better services, but that's not all. Raising awareness is an important part of fundraising because it helps people understand the impact PACC has on the daily lives of so many people. We are looking for individuals who use multiple PACC services and would like to be interviewed for a story in PACCNews and on our website. If PACC is important to you or a loved one, we'd love to tell your story to help others learn about our work. If you can help in this way, please email us at campaigns@pacc.org. Thank you!

In other news, PACC Residential has opened five homes located in north, south and east quadrants of Allegheny County. Four additional homes will be opened this fiscal year for a total of eight. Additional expansion is being planned as part of PACC's five-year strategic plan. PACC clients will receive a survey to assess future residential need later this fiscal year.

Please continue to stay alert for Medicaid renewals and other notices. Individuals receiving multiple services could receive several notices, one for each service. Respond to every notice to ensure needed services are not interrupted. As always, thank you for being a part of the PACC family.

Yours in Service,
